There are many paths to success from a humanities PhD.

The MLA can help you find yours.

Apply today for the MLA Career Development Boot Camp!
8–12 January 2020 at the MLA Annual Convention in Seattle

- LEARN about humanities careers and the versatility of advanced humanistic study.
- DEVELOP skills and gain experience that will be valuable in any career.
- GET a behind-the-scenes look at Seattle City Hall and meet PhDs who work there.
- CONTRIBUTE to a national conversation about careers for humanists.

Participants must be MLA members and must register for the convention. All participants will receive a $400 travel grant from the MLA and are expected to request matching funds from their home departments.
